

THE POWER OF A FOCUSED MOTHER

2008 by Renée Ellison

Abstract: You can spot the difference in the children of a focused mother a mile off! Today's mothers are distracted by many “noble” uses of their time. But while she is preoccupied, her children are the silent losers. These losses are deep and irretrievable. We'll name these losses and show where they lead. Conversely, we'll show you have to raise your conviction and sharpen your aim, so that your children will end up a cut above the pack. The impact of focused motherhood is huge and blessed. Learn how your influence is more than you know.
